

Laguna Lounge

Words and Music: Graeme Connors

I keep the windows open to hear the ocean twenty-four-seven sometimes it purrs sometimes it roars
I love the rhythm of the waves breaking on the shore
The place is tidy almost clean from my point of view - you know what that means and once a week I buy fresh flowers to remind me of you - ah the things we do

Come see me sometime I miss you so It's hard to find an hour free with the busy life you lead I know Still keep it in mind when the day comes 'round you need a break from the top end of town
I'm waiting here for you - in Laguna Lounge

The little servo closed about a month ago with it's mini-mart too between the last big blow and the GFC it's just the local fishos and a few retirees beer and wine - rum or scotch I sell more than I drink but only just With an early close I'm done by ten I can play some piano 'til I fall into my bed

Come see me sometime I miss you still I know I'm asking a lot with your crazy schedule but promise you will I'll cook us a meal something you can't get up town
You make the call whenever - I won't let you down I'm still waiting - in Laguna Lounge

Am I the only one left who remembers this place the way it was in the good old days when the crowd came down on the weekend to play we drank and we sang and we danced the night away....

Come see me sometime I miss you so It's hard to find an hour free in the busy life you lead I know
Still keep it in mind when the day comes 'round
you need a break from the top end of town
I'm waiting here for you - in Laguna Lounge
