

A Soft Place To Fall

Words and Music: Graeme Connors

I wasn't always this strong
As you know only too well
It was you I leaned on
Whenever I fell
I was cursed with feet of clay
But now I'm standing tall
So if you ever need
The strength you gave me
I'll be a soft place to fall
Let me be a soft place to fall

For every time I lied
And every tear you shed
Though you hurt deep inside
Not a hard word was said
So much love I took for granted
Without thinking at all
So if I can do
Anything for you
I'll be a soft place to fall
Let me be a soft place to fall

Love can never be a debt to repay
When it's given willingly
Like the love you've given me
How could I be so blind

Instrumental

So anytime night or day
Don't be afraid to call
I want you to know
Wherever you go
I'll be a soft place to fall
Let me be a soft place to fall
